Bayou Music Comes to Lee District Park Amphitheater

Come dance and enjoy a night of traditional Southwestern Louisiana Cajun and zydeco dance music with Squeeze Bayou at Lee District Park Amphitheater, Wednesday, August 2 at 7:30 p.m. The six-member band specializes in playing two steps and waltzes, and has been performing in the Washington D.C. area for over 18 years. Squeeze Bayou's eclectic style reflects a blend of country music, blues and Creole, with vocals sung in Cajun French.

Lee District Nights, a twice-weekly concert series, can be enjoyed at Lee District Park on Wednesday evenings and at Kingstowne Towne Center on Fridays. The free performances features a wide variety of free musical acts from jazz to big band, classic to bluegrass, swing to folk, and vintage rock 'n roll.

Lee District Park Amphitheater is located at 6601 Telegraph Road, Franconia.

Concerts are held outdoors, so bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 938-7532 after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Lee District Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Lee District Supervisor and Friends of Lee District Nights in partnership with the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
